

GINA

KEATLEY

Global Entrepreneur Turned Visionary Artist

THE UNTAMED MODERNS: A SIGNATURE VISION

Under the umbrella of Untamed Moderns, Gina Keatley's portfolio is a testament to her unrelenting exploration of raw emotion and uncharted narratives. Her use of monochrome palettes with vibrant bursts of mandarin orange creates a visual signature that is instantly recognizable. These bold contrasts mirror her own journey of reinvention and persistence, inviting viewers to engage with the power and vulnerability of human experience.

Gina Keatley is an artist who thrives on the edges of boldness and introspection, crafting works that confront, provoke, and transform. A global entrepreneur and cultural innovator turned modern abstract expressionist, Keatley's journey into the art world is a fearless leap—one that embodies her raw, intense, and intellectual approach to creativity. Her work defies conventional boundaries, exploring the visceral core of human emotion, resilience, and transformation.

As the founder and owner of Bushwick Gallery in Brooklyn, New York, Keatley has created a sanctuary for bold and innovative art. The gallery not only showcases her own daring collections but also serves as a platform for emerging artists, fostering a community of creative exchange and exploration. Bushwick Gallery reflects her belief in the power of art to connect and transform, offering both in-person and digital experiences through its Vault platform.

Keatley's achievements in the art world have been nothing short of extraordinary. Within 12 months of transitioning to art, she created 50 works, opened her own gallery, managed and curated exhibitions for 25 artists, and partnered with Pratt Institute. Her relentless drive and vision make her a force in the contemporary art scene. She has also exhibited her work at prestigious venues, including the Agora Gallery in Soho and the Hamptons Fine Art Fair.

LINEN SERIES: → SUBTLE NARRATIVES IN TEXTURE

The Linen Series is an exploration of simplicity as a gateway to profound discovery. This cohesive collection of six works delves into themes of texture, light, and emotion. Through layered acrylic surfaces, Keatley invites quiet introspection, capturing the delicate balance between calm and tension. The series embodies a refined approach to modern abstraction, emphasizing the beauty of subtle, tactile expression.

COTTON CANDY MADAGASCAR: WILDLIFE REIMAGINED —→

Cotton Candy Madagascar blends monochrome tones with vivid splashes of orange to reimagine wildlife interactions through abstract expressionism. This series captures the dynamic and unpredictable essence of Madagascar's ecosystems, using layered textures to symbolize coexistence and transformation. Keatley's work here emphasizes the instinctual connections between nature and the human spirit.

SOW SERIES: → PERSISTENCE IN MOTION

The Sow Series confronts the relentless energy of human struggle through bold circular, stabbing motions and layered compositions. Works in this collection, such as "Coal Petals" and "Spiral Surge," convey the raw physicality of creation and the emotional force of persistence. This series embodies Keatley's unflinching exploration of resilience and the beauty found within struggle.

PIÙ →

Inspired by the Italian word for "more," Più explores the intersection of cultural heritage and innovation. This series reflects Keatley's Italian-American roots, blending historical influences with modern abstraction. Through vibrant textures and bold strokes, Più celebrates growth, passion, and the ever-evolving journey of identity.

ATMOSPHERIC FAUNA: → UNSEEN REALITIES

In Atmospheric Fauna, Keatley ventures into the enigmatic realm of UFO and UAP phenomena. This provocative series transcends conventional boundaries, bringing unseen entities to life through a combination of acrylic paint, shredded paper, and mixed media. Atmospheric Fauna challenges perceptions and invites viewers to imagine the unknown, blending bold artistic exploration with cultural curiosity.

GLIMPSE SERIES: THE EPHEMERAL

The Glimpse Series captures fleeting moments of human emotion and perception. Dreamlike scenes and fluid expressions define this collection, where vibrant bursts of color against muted tones evoke transformation and movement. Glimpse invites viewers to immerse themselves in the transient beauty of life's impermanence.

BONE SERIES: → RESILIENCE AND TRANSFORMATION

The Bone Series is a minimalist yet powerful exploration of resilience and transformation. Utilizing monochrome palettes with accents of mandarin orange, Keatley creates works that provoke intense emotional responses. This collection delves into the enduring strength of the human spirit, making it one of Keatley's most evocative bodies of work.

ABOUT BUSHWICK GALLERY →

Located at 22 Fayette Street in Bushwick, Brooklyn, Bushwick Gallery is more than an exhibition space; it is a creative hub where bold ideas take shape. Founded by Gina Keatley, the gallery represents her vision of fostering an inclusive and innovative art community. Offering both in-person and digital experiences, the gallery's Vault platform expands access to contemporary art beyond its walls.

Bushwick Gallery showcases a mix of Keatley's own work and that of other daring artists, providing a platform for creativity, connection, and cultural dialogue. With short-term professional studio rentals and curated exhibitions, the gallery is a testament to Keatley's commitment to empowering artists and redefining the art world on her own terms.

RECENT ACHIEVEMENTS

The Atmospheric Fauna series was acquired by the New Paradigm Institute, marking a significant moment in merging art with the UAP Disclosure movement.

Published Essence of Orange (2024), a book exploring the cultural and artistic significance of the color orange, available at Barnes & Noble.

Featured in Peggy Artist Showcase and Artist Closeup Magazine, recognizing her innovation and impact in contemporary abstract art.

Exhibited at Agora Gallery in Soho and the Hamptons Fine Art Fair in 2024, cementing her presence in the elite art world.

CONTACT

Explore Gina Keatley's collections and immerse yourself in the transformative power of modern abstraction:

Website: BushwickGallery.com

Portfolio: UntamedModerns.com

Instagram: @GinaKeatley

Email: gk@bushwickgallery.com

Bushwick
GALLERY

THANK YOU